

Restart

With its strong structure and lightweight lines, Restart is a polypropylene chair available in different colours that play on the contrast with the elegant frame. Stackable and ergonomic, it is available with armrests accessorised with tablet arm and linking device for composition in rows. It is also available cantilever, stool, swivel and bench versions. Padded upholstery panels can also be fitted to the seat and backrest for greater comfort.

